

Prayer to Saint Channah(Anna)

Introduction:

Channah is the mother of saint Mary, the mother of Jezus, who later became the Kristos. So she is the grandmother to Jezus Christ. Just like her daughter she is invoked by people at times of danger and trials for protection and mercy. Typically these have been the trials of unmarried women, women in labour, grandmothers, horseback riders, sailors and miners. Prayers to her seek not only to avert the dangers of chance and the elements, but call upon her wisdom so the trials may be overcome.

Ritual:

This prayer can be done at any time. There is no required or recommended position for this prayer to work best. Depending on tradition her name is pronounced as Channah, Hannah, Anna, Anne or Ann. She is of the house of David so it is possible to combine elements of that house upon the altar or in the prayer.

While praying after ringing the bell wait for the sound to die down naturally and the energetic effects to complete before starting the next line.

Set upon the altar:

- ☉Icon of Saint Channah
- ☉Flower(rose-lotus-lilly)
- ☉Cup
- ☉Bell
- ☉Candle
- ☉Item/Photo of person to be blessed (can be you)
- ☉Depending on season and climate another flower or fragrant substance such as incense or etheric oil can be used. Rose-lotus-lilly are however the most appropriate.
- ☉Pour blessed water or spring water into the cup.
- ☉Light the candle, while meditating of the hidden fire (of the spirit/Heaven).

When praying for yourself:

1. After the prayer take three sips from the cup.
2. With your hands take the heat and light of the candle and spread them over your body from the head on downwards.
3. Inhale the fragrance.

When praying for another:

1. After the prayer sprinkle three drops on the item or photo.
2. With your hands take the heat and light of the candle and spread them over the photo or item from the top to the bottom.
3. Waft the fragrance over the photo or item.

Prayer:

Try to pronounce each line within a single breath.

*In the name of the Father, the Mother, the Son and the Daughter,
I pray to you who is wise, just, pure and merciful, oh Holy Channah.*

Effects:

The prayer should help to dispel the clouds of fear and doubt and release other negative emotions and energies from the body and mind. It should also help the person realize their failings and see a way forward, both in their spiritual life as well as out of danger.

This is a very effective prayer to prepare yourself for receiving other blessings.
